Reunion

Our next reunion will be July 24 to 26, 2009. See Marilyn's letter for more detail.

A future newsletter will contain driving directions. If you are arriving by air, the most convenient commercial airport is Colorado Springs.

We will be meeting again at the Golden Bell Camp and Conference Center near Divide, Colorado on July 24 through 26th. For those of you who have never gone, Golden Bell is in the foothills of Pikes Peak, and is a beautiful, cool location, with plenty of fun family activities. There is an indoor swimming pool and a gym for volleyball, basketball, etc. There are other family activities such as miniature golf, disc golf, a rock climbing wall, and a small playground. More information is available at <http://www.goldenbellccc.org/>.

As we have in the last several years, we will have a fund-raising auction, so bring your auction items. Our theme this year will be "Country Fair." We hope you will bring items you have made to exhibit for the "Fair" and donate them to the auction. If you want to bring an item and not have it sold, that is fine also. I am looking forward to seeing the jellies, pickles, crocheted items, paintings, quilts, etc. that you have made. Guys, I could suggest you bring your "show calf" but I think calves are "off limits". So you will have to show off your baseball card collection instead. Sorry. I know that the family is FULL of talent, and I want to see some of it displayed.

Also, we will have a "Grandstand Talent Show" in the evenings, with your skits, songs, instrumentals, or readings. We will take a couple "field trips", and, if there are enough of you who would like to go, we can get tickets to the Sky Sox, the Colorado Springs Minor League baseball team that is playing a tournament that weekend. More information is available at <http://coloradosprings.skysox.milb.com>.

A Note from Marilyn

Now that the Christmas tree is put away, the groundhog has seen his shadow, and Chocolate Valentine hearts are everywhere, it is time to start thinking about summer and getting away for a vacation. So, I am hoping all of you have put the coming reunion on your calendar.

The cost includes Friday evening meal, three meals Saturday and two meals Sunday, plus lodging:

Adults over 12: $135.00 each

Children: 6-11: 90.00

Children: 2-6: 45.00 (Under 2:free)

There is a discount for those staying in the RV/Camping area.

Again this year, we have scheduled a Friday noon lunch for those of you who will be in Colorado Springs around noon. We will meet at the Mason Jar Restaurant at 11:00 a.m. We will order off of the menu. Gratuity is included in the bill. When you register, please indicate if you will be planning on that meal, as we need to give the restaurant a number.

I hope you have put that weekend on your schedule and will be making plans to come. Please fill out the registration form at the end of this newsletter, and send it in as soon as possible, with a $25.00 deposit per person. We would like to have these turned in by April 1, to help us with the planning. If you have any questions, you can e-mail me at marilynjk@cox.net.
