A Note from Carol

Spring is here, and I am not sorry that the winter is past! It is time to plan fun activities for the warmer weather. Last year in January, I flew to Panama to visit our cousin Millie Reitz where it was nice and warm. This past winter was even colder here, and I missed that get-away and the visiting with someone who shared some of my roots! This newsletter will help with the updates on family that Ray has gathered for us. Some are always fun, like weddings. Then we have the sad when we find the passing of cousins like Phil Lyness, Marilyn Nielsen, Molly Harris and Kay Minter. We will miss them all, but have the memories to linger on. The births are always hopeful signs that the family roots continue to send out new branches to create more outstanding individuals. With the family tree we can see the past, present and the future!

To plan for the future, Janelle and Jeremy Hoffpaur and I met recently and began to plan for some fun activities for the 2015 Reunion at Golden Bell. Since we are co-chairs for the next reunion, we hope you already have the dates of July 24-26, 2015 marked on your calendar. Some of the committee and other willing volunteers and interested family are planning to come to my house in Overland Park, KS on June 20-22 to get inspired for the next reunion. I have old letters etc. to give us ideas and insights. Some will come for a few hours on one of those days, and some may stay awhile, but we hope to come up with some “products” that will be ready for the committee to polish for another memorable reunion. If you have time and are interested in joining in this effort, you can e-mail me at dcmcnary@sbcglobal.net or call 913-897-7598 and I will send you the details as the agenda gets refined. Even if we do not reinvent the wheel, we can have a good time visiting!!

We hope you each have a delightful summer of 2014 and that you save back a few dollars to get you to Golden Bell near Colorado Springs, Colorado next year – July 24-26, 2015!!!

Your Cousin, Carol McNary

Looking forward to Reunion 2015!
